

Two-time IWSC winner from Kamptal

Austria: International double triumph for the traditional winery Rabl in Langenlois

- 5 Rudolf Rabl will not forget the 28th of November 2019 for a long time. On this evening the owner of the winery did not only received the trophy for the best Grüner Veltliner at the "International Wine & Spirit Competition" under the Gothic arches of the "Iconic Guildhall" in the City of London: IWSC Chairman Viscount Thurso presents him with the award as the world's best white wine winery (White Wine Winery of the Year). Even after the announcement that his winery had 10 also been shortlisted for the manufacturer award, Rabl had not dared to hope.

“After last year's IWSC award for the best white wine, the current award is a confirmation of the continuity of our work. But also, for the fact that we are doing a good job and that we are on the right path with our efforts to produce the best wines,” says Rudi Rabl. The presentation on the stage in front of hundreds of guests was an extraordinary experience for him and his wife Christiane.

- 15 Rabl already received the award for the Grüner Veltliner Ried Dechant Alte Reben 2016 in 2018.

For everyone who wants to get an impression of the winery's products: The IWSC-awarded Grüner Veltliner Ried Loiserberg Alte Reben 2017 is currently only available at the winery.

Keywords:

- 20 IWSC

The “International Wine & Spirit Competition” has been evaluating wines and spirits for 50 years. Once a year, an international jury tastes entries from at least 90 countries around the world to announce the winners of the awards at a major gala in London each November.

www.iwsc.net

- 25

Rabl Winery

- Founded in Langenlois in the Kamptal wine region in 1750, the winery developed into one of the best producers not only in the region. The current boss Rudolf Rabl is committed to the production of wines of the highest quality. For generations, the family has worked on some of the best slopes in 30 the area, which, in combination with the microclimate and mineral soils, allows great wines to be made. With his entry into the company Rudolf Rabl supported his father in the further expansion of the winery and put a special emphasis on wine quality and marketing, which is reflected from the 2000s, among other things, in a steadily growing number of awards. In the meantime, the family and its employees work on around 80 hectares of vineyards, making them one of the large farms in 35 Kamptal.

Grüner Veltliner and Riesling are the most important white wine varieties of the company, but they also revive the old tradition of the “mixed set” (in contrast to the cuvée, several grape varieties are grown together in one vineyard. The desired side effect is a significantly increased complexity of 40 the product) left. Furthermore, Frühroter Veltliner, Pinot Blanc or Chardonnay and Rivaner have their place in the assortment.

In addition to Zweigelt and Blue Burgundy, red wine also features specialties such as Merlot and Syrah.

45 Contact & requests:

Rudolf Rabl GmbH

Weraingraben 10

A-3550 Langenlois

Tel. +43 2734 23 03

50 Fax: +43 2734 23 03 10

www.weingut-rabl.at